^a In these Volumes are included, The Laws, Government, and Maintenance of the Reformed Colleges, Universities and Ministers in France, with many Records and Original MSS.

^b Legenda aurea, the Golden Legend. "It is entitled Legenda aurea, wherein ben conteyned alle the bygge and grete festys of our Lorde, the festys of our blessyd Ladye, the lyves, passyons, and miracles of many other Sayntes, and other bystories and acts, translated from the French."

CAXTON'S Preface, "For as much as this Worke was greate and over chargeable to me to accomplissh, I fered me to have contenned it, because of the long time of the translation, and also the inprinting of the same, and in manner halfe desperate to have accomplisshed it, was in purpose to have left it, if it had not ben at the request of the puissant and vertuous erle my lord William erle of Arundell, who desired me to proseed and conteneu the said work, and promised to take a resonable quantity of them, when they wer achedved and accomplisshed; and sent to me a servant of his named John Stanney, who soleyed me in my lords name that I should in no wyse leve hit, promising that my sayd lorde should during my life giue and grant to me a yerely fee, that is to wete a buck in summer and a doo in winter, with which fee I hould me wel content: Thenne at contemplation and reverence of my said lorde, I have finished and imprinted it in the most best wyse that I have coude or might, and presente this said booke to his good and noble lordship, as chese causer of the acheving hit, praying him to take in gree William Caxton his poor Seruant, and that it like him to remember my fee, and I shall praye unto Almightye God for his long life" &c. AMES'S Typograph. Antiquit.

Mr. AMES remarks That this is the largest Book CAXTON ever printed, and in two Columns, containing 72 Wood Cutts, many of which are most rude and the full breadth of the Page.—This rare Book is of the Year 1483, and is undoubtedly the first Legenda aurea, printed by CAXTON, and from which all subsequent Editions were either taken, or more probably abridged, being all much less than this original Edition. The above Preface is wanting, and there is a small deficiency in a single Leaf, which is supplied in MS. otherwise this Copy is more perfect, and better preserved than in generall Books are of so early date.

^a Boetius de Consolatione Philosophiae deserves great Encomium both for the Matter, and for the Stile, in which last he approaches the Purity of a far better Age than his own: By the Command of Theodoric King of the Goths, he was put to Death, (Ann. Chr. 524, Tesse Cave) with whom the Latin Tongue may be said to have sunk in the Western World. Harris's Hermes.

^b In a former Catalogue, the following Remark was made, and is here repeated. "This Edition of Maximus Tyrius, was printed at the Expence SOCIETATIS ad LITERAS PROMOVENDAS INSTITUTAE," ut magnas difficultates quas in libris doctrinae edendis Homines eruditi haud raro experiantur reputarent: Et, ut tanto malo remedium adferrent, literasque sublevarent, Societas sumptu suo ad libros edendos statuebat, ea Conditione, ut cum tot Exemplaria sint vendita unde impense Editionis exsolvi possint, reliqua in Auctoris commodum cedant, qua demum ratione totum operis fructum sine damno ipse percipiat". J. Ward in praefat. ad cl. R. Mead.

It is to be wished, that these "Eximii et illustri Viri, solliciti de Incommodis quibus Studia humaniora eorumque Cultores laborant" (ibid.) had perceived the true Ground of the Inconveniences here complained off, and secured to learned Men a legal Property in their own Publications: This Security would in fact encourage Literature, and benefit every Editor; for it is well known, the generous Intent of this SOCIETY soon vanished, and that no Benefit in one single Instance accrued to the Writer or Editor of this, and the several Books printed by them on these Terms, but contrarywise, a considerable Loss on each Publication. Vide, Two Letters concerning Subscriptions printed by J. P. 1737; wherein this Subject is more particularly treated.

^c This Index compleats the Edition of Hemsterbuius, and may be had in Sheets.

^a This Volume contains, 1. Dissertations on the Wind Euroclydon, 2. On the Island Melite, together with an Account of Ægypt, and its most antient State, and of the Shepherd Kings; In these Dissertations are discussed many Particulars relating to the Antient History of the Assyrians, Chaldeans, Babylonians, Edomites, and Israelites.

^b It is observed in the Preface, "That this HISTORY treats of many Particulars relating to the Order of the GARTER, not mentioned by Mr. ASHMOLE, or Mr. ANSTIS in their respective Histories, or by any other Writer on that Subject; The Collection of the Titles at large especially, of the Knights-Companions, from the Plates of their Arms, as they now stand ranged in the Choir of St. GEORGE'S Chapel, has never yet been attempted; and this certainly is a most necessary and useful Memorial of Honour, of great Importance to that noble Society, and of no small Use in History.—It is also farther observed, That notwithstanding the great Variety, Care has been taken to omit nothing material on each Subject that might tend to the Pleasure and Information of the Reader."

^c THIS APPENDIX contains not only a Continuation of the Knights of the GARTER to the last Installation, but moreover, two INDEXES. I. A General Alphabetical INDEX of all the Knights of the GARTER from the first Institution of the Order to the Year 1762. II. A distinct INDEX of all the Plates of Arms of the Knights Companions mentioned at large in the above HISTORY, and now remaining in St. GEORGE'S Chapel. These two INDEXES were never before published, and are most necessary and useful Additions."

^z In respect to this History of the Isle of Thanet, it is observed Ex Præfatione, "Antiquitates Rutupinas noli, erudite Lector, quasi tenuis aut jejuni argumenti Opus temere nimis deponere. Rebus enim per se forte subobscuris, aut minus clavis, multa doctrinæ, multa ingenii lumina videbis interspersa: & sive te delectant "Romanæ aut Domesticæ vetustatis monumenta, sive literæ humaniores feliciter illustratæ, sive orationis stylus elegans omnino & perpolitus, invenies hic quod morari te possit; quodque exiguam moram vel eruditionis fructu, vel ipsa legendi voluptate pensabit. Imo ubi libellum hunc perlegeris, dolebit tibi, quod unicum hoc Opusculum absolutum reliquerit Autor, uti facile perspicies, tum in Græcis Latinisque literis, tum in recentioribus Antiquitatis omnimodæ scriptoribus versatissimus." N. * On this Literary Publication it is observed, "That the Honour of the first Invention of Printing has been constant Matter of Contest between the Cities of Haerlem, and Mentz in Germany; and that the Dutch have been very assiduous in giving this Honour to their Countryman Laurence Koster, which possibly may be well grounded; But on Inspection of the Spiegel, and other Authorities preserved in the Stadthouse at Haerlem, in Support of this Claim, the Matter will admit of a Doubt. The Controversy is of small Consequence to the Public; and if the City of Mentz is not provided with more authentick Records in Support of their Right to the first Invention of this noble Art, the Claim of both Cities for Priority, may be said to be built on a sandy Foundation."—Mr. Meerman's Book contains many literary Disquisitions on this Subject, worthy the noble and learned Author.

^m La premiere Edition de ce Missel étoit de Toleti, 1500, folio. L'on remarque que peu de livres existent dans la Republique des Lettres aussi rares que celui ci, qui nous conserve l'ancien Rit Chrestien d l'usage des Goths en Espagne. L'on l'appelle Mozarabes, du nom qu'eurent les Chrestiens qui prirent le parti de vivre dans cette Pays sous la Domination des Maures. Cette nouvelle Edition est aussi devenue assez rare même en Italie.
